The sound of a cathedral choir is one of Britain's glories, especially here in beautiful Wells.

Wells Cathedral Chorister Trust

has been set up to raise a fund large enough to ensure that no child is denied the life-changing chance to be a chorister. With the support of its Royal Patron, HRH The Countess of Wessex, the Trust is determined that no child with musical talent should miss out on such an opportunity for financial reasons.

If you would like to consider joining our regular donor scheme, Wells Angels, please visit our website or contact the Trust's administrator on 01749 834281 to find out more. You could help to transform the life of a talented child.

The Trust's website has more information and provides an opportunity to make a donation.

Please visit it as soon as you can:

creating and supporting new music

President: Lord Michael Berkeley CBE Artistic Director: Jeremy Cole

Become a Young Commissioner (£4.50 per month, for 18–25 year olds), Commissioner (£8.50 per month), or Patron (£42.00 per month) to help Wells Cathedral Choir commission new works from some of today's finest composers. Cathedral Commissions has commissioned works by many major composers, including: Richard Allain, Lord Michael Berkeley CBE, Judith Bingham, Jonathon Dove CBE, Gabriel Jackson, John Joubert, Sir James MacMillan CBE, Sir Peter Maxwell Davies CH CBE, Thea Musgrave CBE, Tarik O'Regan, Howard Skempton, Sir John Tavener, and Judith Weir CBE (Master of the Queen's Music)

Being a Cathedral Commissioner enables you to become part of a group that shares the unique experience of enabling a new piece of music to come into being. As a Cathedral Commissioner you will:

- be invited to the main rehearsal for the premiere of the work, with the composer in attendance
- be a VIP guest at the premiere
- have your score signed by the composer at a special reception
- have your name printed in the score; this may include a dedication to a family member or a friend
- be kept up to date with the progress of the work after its premiere
- directly support the work of a contemporary composer
- directly support Wells Cathedral Choir and the wider English choral tradition

For further details about this exciting opportunity please contact Dr Nicholas Hooper, Cathedral Commissions Administrator, telephone 01749 832204 or email administrator@cathedralcommissions.co.uk

Lunchtime Concerts

Visiting Choir Informal Concerts

Throughout the year visiting choirs come to give informal concerts at lunchtime, starting at 1.05pm for approximately 45 minutes. They come from the USA, Canada, Australia, Russia, Continental Europe as well as this country. Please check details on the Cathedral Music List.

Wells Cathedral School, Music School Concert Hall

Lunchtime concerts are given by pupils during term time on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and occasionally on Fridays, at 1.05pm. Doors open 15 minutes before the start of the concert, admission is free, and everyone is welcome. Visit wells.cathedral.school/free-concerts for details. Wells is one of the four schools in England which caters for children of outstanding musical ability.

How to Book

Wells Cathedral Box Office

During 2020, the Wells Cathedral Box Office will cease to run from the Cathedral Shop and will instead be online through our website wells cathedral.org.uk. Details will be announced on the Cathedral website. Once the Box Office is online, if you are unable to access the internet the staff in the Cathedral Shop will be able to help you purchase your tickets. Whilst still running from the Cathedral Shop, the Box Office will be open 10.30am – 4.30pm (4.00pm during winter hours) Monday to Saturday, and 11.30am – 4.30pm (4.00pm during winter hours) on Sundays and Bank Holidays. We are able to sell the tickets as soon as the concert organisers deliver them.

Tickets for the Candlelight Concerts will be available from 1 May.

N.B. Please note, tickets cannot be refunded.

Tickets on the door

For the majority of concerts where tickets can be purchased on the night, payment will be by cash only, as the Shop will be closed at this time.

Telephone Bookings

Whilst tickets are still available from the Cathedral Shop, bookings and payment may be made by telephone to the Box Office between the opening hours noted above. Please call 01749 672773 with your credit/debit card details. £3.00 is charged per transaction on ticket bookings made by telephone.
